Intitulé : Provision of medical analysis services in the field of pathological anatomy

Description : The National Center of Pathology of LNS faces an increase of its activity and is willing to outsource diagnostic cases (around 16.000 cases per year or 60 cases per day). The diagnostic cases may consist of any kind of biopsies, but mainly focuses on gastric and dermatopathological biopsies. Samples to be analyzed will be transferred to the successful tenderer by LNS or by a transportation company hired by LNS. The successful tenderer will carry out the analysis and tests requested by a prescribing doctor on the samples provided by the LNS. The successful tenderer will prepare an analysis report for the concerned sample and transmit it to the LNS.
